Dear Mr. Bharara:

On behalf of Managed Funds Association's (MFA's) Board of Directors and members, I am pleased to invite you to provide the opening keynote remarks at Managed Funds Association's Compliance 2016 conference. This event is MFA's signature regulatory compliance conference and will take place May 10th in New York at the Metropolitan Club.

MFA's Compliance 2016 will draw 400 delegates representing the alternative investment industry including firm principals, general counsels, compliance officers, chief financial officers, chief operating officers, outside counsel, accounting firms and other service providers. The program agenda is designed to provide clarity on regulatory reforms and practical, actionable advice on key legal and compliance issues for decision-makers in the industry.

Our conference delegates would be keen to hear your perspectives on the recent developments in cybersecurity and financial fraud arena. In addition, Michael Neus has agreed to moderate a 'fireside chat' following your keynote as well if you are willing.

We hope you will accept our invitation and use this opportunity to reach one of your key constituencies.

Please contact me if you have any questions or require additional information.

Sincerely,

(b)(6), (b)(7)c
